

Overview

gRPC Conf held virtually, July 27-28, 2020, brought together the international gRPC community through virtual on-demand sessions, networking rooms and social feeds. Speakers answered live questions and interacted with attendees during 7 keynotes and 11 break out sessions focusing on Ecosystem, gRPC in-production, Implementation and tooling.

The registrants were 82% developers and 6% executives. 68% considered themselves full stack developers and 9% said they were web developers.

Ninety percent of attendees surveyed found the event to be valuable and would attend another virtual event.
