ORGANIZATIONS

We were thrilled to see the diverse representation of organization types at our event, ranging from end-users to consulting firms and vendors.

The wide range of attendees reflects the growing interest and adoption of cloud-native digital infrastructures and Kubernetes across different sectors of the industry.

CONTRIBUTIONS

We are grateful for the generous support of our local business community and the tireless efforts of our volunteers. Their contributions made our event possible and ensured a memorable experience for all attendees.

Our local businesses provided delicious food and beverages that showcased the vibrant flavors of our region. Their commitment to quality and freshness made a big difference in the overall experience.

Our volunteers were the driving force behind the event's success. They were dedicated, passionate, and enthusiastic, and they went above and beyond to make sure everything ran smoothly. Their hard work and dedication made the event possible, and they helped create a warm and welcoming atmosphere for all attendees.

SUSTAINABILITY

Food and beverage items were sourced from local suppliers. Leftover food was donated to University workers, foundations, and people in need. All disposable cups were biodegradable, provided by the University. Lunch bags were made from recycled paper.

The provision of biodegradable disposable cups and recycled paper lunch bags, courtesy of the University, underscored their commitment to sustainability and environmental consciousness, further enhancing the event's impact.
