

gRPC Conf 2023

Overview

CNCF successfully hosted gRPC Conf 2023 in Sunnyvale, CA, bringing together a diverse community of key customers, project leads, and contributors who form the backbone of the gRPC ecosystem. The event featured a full day of engaging talks, hands-on demos, insightful case studies, and interactive code labs. Renowned experts delved into real-world gRPC implementations, shared invaluable developer best practices, and offered in-depth insights into various topics. This event served as a vital resource for anyone currently utilizing gRPC in their applications or exploring its potential for their enterprise microservices.
